Why choose us?

- We offer small class sizes which mean that our dedicated and knowledgeable staff can focus on meeting each child's individual needs.
- We offer a broad and balanced curriculum, giving our children many opportunities to learn beyond just Maths and English!
- Our children experience Forest School lessons where the children can explore the outside and take risks in a safe and supervised environment.
- Our school has a kind, caring ethos based upon Christian Values such as: truthfulness, courage, forgiveness, compassion and perseverance.
- We readily work together with parents and value your contribution to your child's continued development.

What our parents say about us:

- The school has great staff, who are committed and want all children to do well.
- It is friendly and welcoming; and my child enjoys school.
- It has a lovely family feeling to the school.
- The staff work hard and are great at providing a happy environment for the children to learn in.
- The children are given the opportunity to grow and mature.
- All the staff are lovely and have time for the children and parents – I'm very happy that I chose Charsfield Primary School for my child.

What our pupils say they like:

- I like that because it's a small school, you make lots of good friends
- Teachers make learning fun
- We do lots of sports and competitions
- I like Forest Schools and learning outside
- I like art and DT
- I loved going to Whitlingham on the canoe
